February 21, 2022 - Ottawa, Canada

Under the Emergency Economic Measures Order (Emergencies Act), the list that was provided to financial institutions included identities of individuals who were influencers in the illegal protest in Ottawa, and owners and/or drivers of vehicles who did not want to leave the area impacted by the protest. At no time, did we provide a list of donors to financial institutions.

We are now working with the banks to build a process to address the accounts that were frozen.

761. Ontario Police Constable resigns and gives a heartfelt farewell letter of resignation.
#police #ontario #ottawa #canada #FreedomConvoy2022

To:

Chief of Police [REDACTED]

Superintendent [REDACTED]

Staff Sergeant [REDACTED]

The [REDACTED] Services Board

I am writing this letter with a heavy heart as I have come to a conflict of conscience that I can not ignore any longer.

I will never forget the K-9 Officer that attended my school when I was young. His uniform was pressed, his shoes were polished, and he was well spoken and polite. He was the embodiment of professionalism, and he exuded the "spirit" of law enforcement that society would expect. The type of officer that a criminal was afraid of, but the average citizen admired and respected. Since that day, it was my desire to become a police Officer.

As it often happens, life went on an unexpected journey where I operated a small construction company, was married and had four children, but the desire to become a police Officer never waned. At age 30, I changed the course of my life, and was hired by the York Region Police (YRP). I cannot describe the sense of joy and pride I felt as I put on the uniform for the first time. I became a super hero to my children. For the past 10 years, I have worked my hardest to serve my community, have integrity in carrying out my duties, and upheld that same "spirit" of the law I first admired.

Unfortunately, the past two years has been a challenge due to Covid-19. The only solution offered to fix the crisis, was believed by some to not be a viable one. As a result, one group was criticized, coerced, and discriminated against at the direction of Public Health Officials. As a result, a polarization effect took hold. Despite the desire of YRP to be an inclusive workplace, over the past year, it has been anything but. The effects of this division have been felt by everyone, and it is my opinion that the overall morale in policing is suffering as a result.

Recently, a group of truckers who, when faced with the decision to take a controversial medical intervention or lose their livelihood, organized a protest to stand up for their rights. I watched as countless citizens cheered from the roadside as the trucks made their way across the country. This was about more than just truckers.

Recently, an act of partisan leadership has declared this largely peaceful Convoy protest in Ottawa, an illegal act akin to domestic terrorism, and the Federal Emergency Measures Act was enacted. As a result, police services have begun to arrest and disperse the protestors, even as our government debates whether the measures are lawful or necessary. In essence, the police are now acting on the whims of a minority government and its leader.

Over the past few years, I have watched protests in support of various causes, which resulted in massive property damage, barricaded critical infrastructure, and even acts of violence. At no point was the suspension or restriction of Charter rights a consideration, and rightly so. Police carried out their duties appropriately, as there was a balance between administering the law and upholding the rights of the protesters. What's more, is that despite the criminal offences committed by a few, it was not allowed to detract from the message of the was not allowed to detract from the message of the majority at each protest.

My grandfather (Opa) fought against the Nazi regime when he was young, and by the grace of God, survived. In his old age, he warned me that the path to tyranny was cloaked in the appearance of what was good for society. The process is slow, but its end is devastating.

evict. The process is slow, but its end is devastating.

I have wrestled with my conscience in the hopes that all this will pass, and go back to normal. Regardless, what has been made clear is that the rights and freedoms supposedly guaranteed to Canadian citizens, are not as absolute as I once believed. I am sickened as I watch Officers carry out these orders against everyday citizens.

My own children do not understand why these citizens are being handcuffed, pepper sprayed, and run over by horses, as the vast majority of them have peacefully protested. I am saddened that I can not look at my children and provide them adequate justification for these actions. Today, I have to admit that I am ashamed and disgusted to call myself a Police Officer in Canada.

I can not in good conscience, continue to carry out my duties as an Officer, merely for a pay cheque, while at the same time be ashamed of the profession. I truly hope that Canada finds a way to heal, and move past this dark time, but that will only happen when all voices are heard. It is my belief, that the police are now being used as a tool to silence voices, which flies in the face of the freedoms and values I swore to uphold.

As such, I am writing to notify you that I am resigning from my position of Police Detective Constable with the York Regional Police effective immediately, this Friday, February 18th, 2022.

To my co-workers. I firmly believe all of you possess only the highest level of honesty, integrity, and courage this world has to offer. You chose and were chosen for that reason. You became officers to make our world better and to uphold the "spirit" of law and order. I hope each one of you remembers your oath and protects our precious freedoms at all cost, not matter who is trying to take them. Praying you all stay safe.

Humbly submitted.

In the eyes of some people in Canada, similar protests and demonstrations should be referred to differently in different places. In Hong Kong, they are “human rights movement”, but in Canada they are “a threat to democracy”. Such stark double standard is unacceptable.
